We value our colleagues as reflective educators who are open to new ideas and focused on best practice as they educate our students to develop as critical thinkers and lifelong learners. We are committed to highly effective learning and teaching which is built on relational trust. We have positioned ourselves globally through our membership of Council of International Schools and Primary Years Program ensuring we develop global citizens.

Brighton Primary is a community of:

- Critical thinkers
- Interactive learners
- Global citizens

3. Engagement Strategies

The foundation of our positive school culture is the active participation of all members of the school community so they feel valued, safe and secure; are provided with meaningful opportunities to contribute to the school; and have every opportunity to meet their personal and educational potential.

A key component of the Brighton's approach to prevention is teaching positive behaviours that are embodied in the International Baccalaureate learner profile and are underpinned by the attitudes of the Primary Years Program. Our values are actioned by agreed norms. The focus is on the collective good with the common understanding that every teacher is the teacher of every student at Brighton Primary School. Our focus is on the use Restorative Practices and the use of logical consequences to address appropriate and inappropriate behaviour.

The Brighton Primary School Council and leadership team regularly consult with students, parents/carers, support organisations and the broader community to ensure we are responsive to students' social, emotional, cognitive and cultural needs.

Through the inquiry of Primary Years Program and the Junior School Council student voice is acknowledged in the planning and delivery of curriculum. There is a student leadership program and significant rite of passage celebrated as students' progress through the school:

- Kindergarten to Prep transition
- Prep 100 day celebrations
- Grade 3 and 4 Film Festival alternate years to the musical production
- Grade 4 and 5 musical production alternate years
- Grade 6 Exhibition
- Whole school transition program in November

Brighton Primary School continues to build on the opportunities for our students to take on meaningful responsibilities both within the school and the broader community.

Our positive school culture is also predicated on student engagement being the basis for learning. To support this, the school leadership team is actively engaged in developing effective classroom practice to ensure that our pedagogy and curriculum engages all students by recognising and responding to their diverse individual learning needs. A professional learning community of life-long learners facilitates the building of respectful relationships, a deep understanding of pedagogy and improved teaching and learning practice. An inclusive and engaging curriculum incorporating the Primary Years Program and Council of International Schools, AusVELS Essential Learning Standards ensures that teaching and learning practice is in line with the needs of 21st century learners.

Prevention Programs

At Brighton Primary School we work together as a whole school community to ensure a preventative school culture by providing programs and practices including the Student Leadership Teams, a whole school Buddy Program, a whole school Transition Program, a comprehensive Kindergarten to Prep Transition Program, Reading Recovery, Learning Support, Life Education, School Captains, Student Led Assembly, Junior School Council, Friendship Stop, Peer Mediation, a Student Wellbeing Team, Oz Child psychologist and DET Student Support Officer.

Inclusion, Wellbeing & Transitions

Brighton Primary School has a proactive approach to student health with the continued provision of a full-time school nurse and level 2 first aid trained staff. In addition, staff is trained annually in the management and treatment of asthma and anaphylaxis.

Sunsmart School. The school promotes sun smart behaviours with the wearing of hats for all outside activities in terms 1 and 4 and in terms 2 and 3 on days of higher UV ratings. The school nurse is responsible for alerting staff of high UV rating days.

Parent Participation

Parent participation is important and we are continuously reviewing our Parent Participation Policy, in line with current research on home school partnerships and its impact on student learning and engagement.

Support Services

A close relationship has been established with a number of support agencies including the Bayside Council, Oz Child psychologist, Alfred CYMHS and DET Student Support Service Officers (SSSO) staff who actively contributes as members of the school community.

Professional Learning

Teacher professional learning is given high priority at Brighton Primary School to ensure that teaching and learning approaches are based on deep level pedagogical understanding and are reflective of best practice. Peer Observation and team teaching are opportunities for teachers to learn with, from and on the behalf of each other. Improvement to teaching and learning is supported by modelling of best practice, underpinned by current research facilitated by consultants David Anderson and Michael Ymer. Ongoing professional learning in DET initiatives and school based priorities will continue to be a focus at Brighton Primary School.

Collaboration and Communication

At Brighton Primary School we have a school wide understanding of the positive impact of parent's involvement in the development of student's behavioural, emotional and cognitive engagement with learning. We foster a collaborative approach with parents through Compass, student planners, pastoral care interviews, individual learning improvement plan interviews, reports, newsletters, educational forums, parent-teacher interviews, phone calls and student support meetings.

4. Identifying Students in Need of Extra Support

At BPS we use the following information and tools to identify students in need of extra support:

- Information gathered on enrolment
- Attendance data
- Academic performance
- Classroom observation
- Engagement with the family
- Assessments from other agencies
- Information from other support agencies

5. Shared Behaviour Expectations

Brighton Primary School has developed shared expectations to ensure that the learning, safety and rights of all are respected. This process is undertaken at the beginning of each year where a staff essential agreement is co constructed with staff and a classroom essential agreement is co constructed with students and the classroom teacher. The expectations are intended to be positive and set out the appropriate behaviours for our school community.

Our shared expectations are intended to support staff, students and families from a diverse range of backgrounds, communities and experiences. Refer to Appendix 1: Rights and Responsibilities

6. School Actions

Each teacher co-creates a class Essential Agreement with the students. The Essential Agreement describes the way students and teachers in the class want to be treated and how everyone will work in the space. It is displayed prominently in the classroom for easy and regular reference.

The Essential Agreement is underpinned by the attitudes of the Primary Years Program. These attitudes are Appreciation, Commitment, Confidence, Cooperation, Creativity, Empathy, Enthusiasm, Independence, Integrity, Respect and Tolerance.

At Brighton Primary School, our overarching and connecting value is respect and this has to be included in all Essential Agreements. It is our core value and needs to be displayed in all spaces.

It is the teachers' and the students' shared responsibility to hold each other accountable to the class essential agreement. If students do not meet the essential agreement, a consequence will be put in place. This could be losing time at recess or lunch to complete work or walking with the teacher on duty.

Students have a responsibility to maintain a safe and orderly learning environment. If a student disrupts others' learning and loses the right to remain in the classroom, he/she is sent to a swap class. The most effective use of a swap class is to arrange one that is not in your year level.

If a student is having difficulty settling into the class and understanding routines, the parents will be contacted and meetings will be set up to assist the student.

Appropriate Behaviour

Brighton Primary School will acknowledge students who meet the shared expectations outlined in this policy through recognition and encouragement.

Inappropriate Behaviour

The restorative approach is used to address student behaviour in various settings and levels to:

- re-establish significant relationships
- ensure consequences for misbehaviour are relevant and meaningful
- foster and develop individual responsibility and empathy

Refer to Appendix 2: Staged Response to Behaviour Issues

7. Engaging with Families

At BPS we value parent input and seek feedback through the Parent Opinion survey and from parent representatives on School Council. The School Council provides financial assistance and encouragement to the Parents Association in our efforts to build a sense of community. We provide an environment that welcomes all parents/carers as partners in the student's learning.

The school will create successful partnerships with parents/carers and families by:

- publishing the BPS Engagement Policy
- conducting effective school/home communications
- providing volunteer opportunities to enable parents/carers to contribute
- coordinating resources and services from the community for families, students and the school

For effective student learning it is critical for students to be at school on time and on task.

Behaviour

Parents/carers should understand the school's behavioural expectations and work with it to promote a consistent approach that supports their child's learning and engagement.

Appendix 2: Staged response to behaviour issues

A restorative practice question approach is built upon the following key questions:

When things go wrong	When someone has been hurt
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- What happened?- What were you thinking at the time?- What have you thought about since?- Who has been affected by what you have done? In what way?- What do you think you need to do to make things right?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- What did you think when you realized what had happened?- What impact has this incident had on you and others?- What has been the hardest thing for you?- What do you think needs to happen to make things right?

A Staged Response

- This approach will be conducted in an informal way for minor incidents and be embedded in classroom teaching and learning.
- Serious incidents will require a more formal restorative session that involves Student Wellbeing Team (Assistant Principal), Principal, and Leading Teachers and if necessary the DET Student Support Officer and all persons affected in the incident. The response will be documented.
- There will be situations where a formal conference involving the before mentioned people: parents, support persons and convener will be required (Student Support Group). Any imposed consequence will be imbedded in the restorative process that requires a response 'that makes things right' in relation to those who have been affected.
- Where a restorative approach has previously been conducted and subsequently the behaviour continues, the school will constitute a further Student Support Group to devise strategies and approaches to address the behaviour. This may include intervention from specialist services and external agencies in the local community and the development of an Individual Behaviour Management Plan.

Appendix 3. Bullying

Bullying is a pattern of behaviour by one person or a group towards others which is designed to hurt, injure, embarrass, upset or cause discomfort.

Definition of Bullying

Bullying is when someone, or a group of people, who have more power at the time, deliberately upset or hurt another person, their property, reputation or social acceptance on more than one occasion.

There are three broad categories of bullying:

1. Direct physical bullying

This form includes hitting, tripping and pushing or damaging property.

2. Direct verbal bullying

This form includes name calling, insults, homophobic or racist remarks, or verbal abuse.

3. Indirect bullying

This form of bullying is harder to recognise and often carried out behind the bullied person's back. It is designed to harm someone's social reputation and/or cause humiliation. Some examples might include:

- lying and spreading rumours
- playing nasty jokes to embarrass and humiliate
- mimicking
- encouraging others to socially exclude someone
- damaging someone's social reputation and social acceptance
- cyber-bullying, which involves the use of email, text messages or chat rooms

What bullying is not

Many distressing behaviours are not examples of bullying, even though they are unpleasant and often require teacher intervention and management.

There are three socially unpleasant situations that are often confused with bullying.

1. Mutual conflict

In mutual conflict situations, there is an argument or disagreement between students and not an imbalance of power. Both parties are upset and usually both want a resolution to the problem. However, unresolved mutual conflict sometimes develops into a bullying situation with one person becoming targeted repeatedly for 'retaliation' in a one-sided way.

2. Social rejection or dislike

Unless the social rejection is directed towards someone specific and involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others, it is not bullying.

3. Single-episode acts

Single episodes of nastiness or physical aggression are not the same as bullying. If a student is verbally abused or pushed on one occasion they are not being bullied. Nastiness or physical aggression that is directed towards many different students.

Bullying is different from simple social rejection, one off aggression/nastiness and mutual conflict. Bullying is a repeated unjustifiable behaviour that may be physical, verbal and/or psychological that is intended to cause fear, distress or harm to another. It is conducted by a more powerful individual or group against a less powerful individual who is unable to effectively resist. Bullying occurs to some extent in all schools. The effects of bullying on both the student being bullied and the student engaging in the bullying behaviour, show a need for intervention in social skills development in young children and the need for the creation of safe environments.

At Brighton Primary School we have a strong commitment to prevent and minimise bullying in the school. We are committed to the use of a combination of many approaches as we believe there is no one simple strategy to achieve a safe and harmonious environment.

Cyber Bullying

Please refer to the BPS Acceptable Use Agreement and e Smart Policy.

Appendix 4: Responding to breaches of Behaviour Expectations

Inappropriate Behaviour may be addressed by:

- talking to the student and referring them to the shared expectations
- discussing appropriate behaviours in the classroom
- contact with parents
- making changes to the student's learning program to better equip him/her to behave positively
- implementing restorative practices
- conferencing: apology
- action to make it right agreed too (may include clean up damage to property)
- asking the student to undertake tasks designed to better equip them to behave positively in the future
- counselling
- appropriate behaviours taught and agreed to
- payment for damage sought.
- withdraw privileges, e.g. walk with the duty teacher, lose the right to be in the playground
- withdraw student temporarily from class – swap grade
- holding Student Support Group meetings
- giving the student 'time-out' – gradual reintroduction using a planned response
- negotiating alternative pathways or settings for student; or as a matter of last resort, suspension or expulsion.
- creating Individual Behaviour Management Plans in consultation with parents, student and teachers

Ongoing Behaviour issues, including challenging behaviours

Where students exhibit ongoing behaviour patterns as part of staged response, a range of strategies will be used. These may include the following.

- Discussing the behaviour problems and reaching an agreement for future behaviour.
- Explicit Teaching of appropriate behaviours.
- Monitoring and providing feedback.
- Time Out allowing students a "Cooling Off" period.
- Withdrawal a student may be withdrawn from an activity, class– swap grade, camp or excursion due to inappropriate behaviour and or be provided with an alternative educational setting within the school.
- Counselling for individuals in order to modify inappropriate behaviour.
- Wellbeing /Student Support Group Meeting involving parents/caregivers and/or relevant DET support staff, outside agencies to assist with modifying the behaviour.
- Withdrawal from playground will be given to a student for seriously compromising the safety of themselves or others and/or continual misconduct. Parents/caregivers will be informed and a further meeting arranged to discuss behaviour or to draw up a Behavioural Plan (where necessary).
- Suspension & Expulsion: For serious disciplinary measures we follow DET Student Inclusions and Engagement Guidance, developed in response to Ministerial Orders No.184 and 625.

Corporal punishment is prohibited in all Victorian schools.
